2009 Urban Ministry Team Member Packet

Learning to Love and Serve the Poor in the Inner City

*Changing lives.
Transforming communities.*

Dear Urban Ministry Team Participant:

Welcome to the inner city!

Thank you for your willingness to walk with us as we seek the Lord for spiritual and economic change in our community. Your team's efforts in sweat evangelism, work projects, mentoring and prayers allow us to multiply our efforts and impact low-income communities of need. Our prayer is that the Lord will use you to live out the gospel through the ministry of word and deed. We do not simply want to be a ministry that is known for what we do but why we do what we do.

During your week with us, you will be spending time at Hope for the Inner City's main campus, New City Fellowship church and the surrounding neighborhoods.

Please be prayerful and work hard to prepare for your time with us. My staff and I will be praying and preparing for your visit. If you have any questions, feel free to email or call us anytime, or you can visit our special Web page at hope4theinnercity.org/umt, where this entire packet is downloadable.

Blessings to you,

Paul A. Green

About Hope for the Inner City

Hope for the Inner City is a merger of two Christian faith-based organizations with a shared history of helping people trapped in poverty and despair.

For 37 years Inner City Ministries reached the poor through mercy and youth programs. For 11 years Hope for Chattanooga moved many of these same people from dependency to self-sufficiency. Both nonprofits, separately launched by New City Fellowship pastor Randy Nabors, merged in 2007. Today, Hope for the Inner City partners with churches and other organizations to bring hope and renewal to Chattanooga's inner city.

Recognizing that the challenges of poverty are often deep and intertwined, Hope takes a balanced, Christ-centered approach to mercy ministry and community development: meeting the poor's immediate physical needs (housing, food, medical aid) while also addressing their long-term social development (financial counseling, career coaching, and homeownership programs).

About Urban Ministry Teams

Serving on an urban ministry team is a seven-day exercise in leadership development. It will equip your youth group, deacons or church leadership with a vision for racial reconciliation, ministry among the poor, and joy in worship in the heart of Chattanooga's inner city. You can learn more about our serving on an urban ministry teams at www.hope4theinnercity.org/umt.

Objectives

- To help fulfill the mission of Hope for the Inner City in our target community by revitalizing the neighborhood and working to increase the value of homes.
- To develop Christian leaders with a vision of holistic ministry.
- To work with churches in evangelizing and making disciples in urban communities.
- To teach team members about the issues facing people who live in urban centers.
- To fulfill the church's calling to care for the poor, elderly and widows.
- To empower groups to return to their home churches with a vision and passion for ministry.

Registration

- Per-Person Cost: $325 per person. This fee, which includes resource materials, housing and lodging, is paid to "Hope for the Inner City." Spending money is required, especially for Friday dinner.
- Forms: All forms (pages 7-9) must be completed and submitted to your team leader, who will mail them to Hope for the Inner City no later than one month prior to your urban ministry team's arrival.
- Additional Copies: This packet is available at www.hope4theinner.org/umt.
